DRUNKEN DISTURBER

Arrested Monday Morning While Trying To Start Campfire In Downtown Building.

Sunday morning about 2:30 o'clock, officers W. D. Fizer and D. P. Bloom-huff arrested Charles Clancey on the charge of being drunk and disorder-Giancey when arrested was attempting to build a fire in the vestibule of the Caproni building. When taken to the county jail he was searched by Jatler John W. Eitel and several bills of small denominations and a spool of pill were found on his person. Sunday morning the police were notified that the front door of the residence of Mrs. Jack Newell had been broken during the night. Officer Tolle investigated and discovered several burned matches, some money and half of a $2 bill covered with blood. In the torn $2 bill discovered on the person of Clancey and when he compared the fragments they were found to be of the same bill. Clancey was then examined but claimed because of being drunk he

The police entertain the theory that some of the local characters attempted to rob Clancey in the doorway of the Newell residence, and that in his attempt to prevent them Clancey broke the door and in hunting for his handkerchief to stop the flow of blood caused by being cut by the glass, he dropped a part of the bill. Clancey will be held on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. It was also learned that the gilt twine that was

RESTAURANT RAIDED

Police Swoop Down On Front Street Establishment-Much Wet Goods Found.

Sunday about noon Chief of Police James Mackey and Officer William Tolle raided the restaurant of John Devin, on Front street, several doors from Market street, and confiscated several dozen bottles of liquor. The police learned from a farmer that whisky could be purchased from one Alfred Tomlin, of Aberdeen. Upon investigation it was found that Devin was the source from which Tomtin obtained his liquor, and it was decided to raid the restaurant operated by Devin. This was done and a considerable amount of evidence was found by the officials.

Devin and Tomlin were placed u der arrest and released on bond. The are charged with selling liquor with
